

Babcock Hall is a Century Old!

Babcock Hall, built in 1907; here shown in 1909/1910
(Elwyn B. Robinson Department of Special Collections, Chester Fritz Library, University of North Dakota)

UND Anthropology Alums:

You're Invited for lunch!

Come help us celebrate Babcock's Centennial on Friday,
September 28, 2007
Noon-3:00

Will you be in Grand Forks for UND Homecoming? Why not stop by your old stomping grounds and see how the old place has changed? Come meet the new faculty, learn about their global research activities, and see our newly renovated conference room, student lounge and classroom. Hear some great world music, play some games, view the history of Babcock in a slide show, take a tour of the new Forensic Science Teaching Laboratory (over in O'Kelly Hall), try your hand at some flint-knapping, and share some exotic ethnic food prepared by the faculty. (And you can park right next door!) We hope to see you here on the 28th!

Contact: Jamie at (701)777-4615 or Melinda at (701)777-3697