Homecoming Parade

This is Homecoming week at UND and the homecoming parade will be Saturday, October 3 at 10:30 a.m. along University Avenue. Come enjoy the parade and cheer on your friends from the International Organization and other student organizations. 🌐

India Night

The Thursday Cultural Nights begin with India night, this Thursday, October 8th at 7:00 at the Loading Dock in the Memorial Union. For this week only, the food is free for students who present a student ID. It will be $1.00 for everyone else. This week's cultural night is co-sponsored by the Multicultural Awareness Committee and by the Graduate School. 🌐

Potato Bowl

The Potato Bowl is a weeklong community festival in Grand Forks and East Grand Forks "teaming the University of North Dakota and the Red River Valley potato growing industry" (from the Potato Bowl website). There are a variety of community events taking place throughout the week. For information about the different events, see the Potato Bowl website: <http://www.potatobowl.org>.

On Saturday, October 10, the OIP is organizing a group to go downtown to see the Potato Bowl parade. The parade starts at 9:30 a.m., so we will need to meet at the International Centre by 8:30 a.m. If you are interested in joining this group, please email Shannon at shannonjolly@mail.und.edu no later than the end of the day on Tuesday, October 7th. We need to make sure that we can arrange sufficient transportation. The parade is free. Depending on numbers, there may be a small cost for transportation. 🌐

International Organization News

Students interested in finding out about upcoming IO meetings and activities are encouraged to join the UND IO Facebook group. The group is called International Organization and is the one with UND on the logo, NOT in the name. IO meetings are currently on a rotating schedule, so this will be the best way to find out about meetings and upcoming events. 🌐
