

UND School of Engineering and Mines

ACADEMY

Sherri Bonacci McDaniel

Born: March 25, 1966, Mankato, MN

Education: UND BSEE, 1989

U of MN Carlson School MBA, 1994

Career Experience

- 1986 - 1989 3M COMPANY, St Paul, MN and Camarillo, CA
Engineering Co-op student serving in roles in design, marketing and operations over four separate sessions
- 1989 - 2008 ROSEMOUNT, INC, Emerson Process Management, Chanhassen, MN
Advanced through a variety of marketing, operations and general management positions with Emerson over 20 years to present
- 1989 - 1991 Application Engineer
1991 - 1993 Marketing Engineer
1993 - 1994 Sr. Marketing Engineer
1994 - 1996 Marketing Manager
1996 - 2000 Operations Manager
2000 - 2006 Director, Americas Operations
2006 - 2007 Vice President, Worldwide Temperature Business Unit
2007 - present Vice President and GM, Worldwide Temperature Business Unit

Accomplishments

- Led global $200M Emerson business to high sales growth and profit margins
- Rosemount Executive Sponsor: New Product Development Process and New Engineer Recruitment
- Emerson Corporate Liaison to the University of North Dakota
- Society of Women Engineers, MN Professional Section Treasurer, Vice President, President
- Published in Gas Research Institute and other process industry trade journals
- Twin Cities United Way Women's Leadership Council

Honors

- Emerson Executive Leadership Program Award
- UND Hultberg Lectureship Award
- UND Eternal Flame Club Award

