WEST FARGO GRADUATE TAKES SKILLS TO A NEWS LEVEL Glendon Gengel brings graphic design and photography skills to Studio One

GRAND FORKS, N.D.-- Glendon Gengel is a marketing team intern at Studio One, the University of North Dakota's weekly news program. He is a photographer and Web assistant this semester. He has spent the two previous semesters on the project interning as the Web designer. Last semester, Gengel received Studio One's Recognition of Excellence award for his creative contributions to the program. Some of his graphic design work has been published in Advanced Photoshop magazine and featured in Photoshop Creative magazine. Gengel says that his experience at Studio One will be beneficial after college. Along with his internships, Gengel stays busy in his academics and working at a movie theater. He also has helped design graphics for UND's Residence Life Cinema.

Gengel is the son of Valerie and Glenn Gengel of Horace, N.D. He graduated from West Fargo High in 2008 and is currently a sophomore at UND majoring in marketing. Gengel plans to graduate in May of 2012. After graduation he would like to work in the graphic design field. He plans to use his creative talents to promote bands.

Studio One is an award-winning news and information program produced at the University of North Dakota Television Center. The program airs live on UND Channel 3 on Thursdays at 5 p.m. Re-broadcasts can be seen at 7 a.m., noon, 7 p.m. and 11 p.m. daily and on Saturdays at 10 a.m. Prairie Public Television airs Studio One on Saturday at 6 a.m. The program can also be seen by viewers in Fargo, Bismarck/Mandan and Minot, N.D.; Minneapolis, Minn.; Denver, Colo.; and Winnipeg, Manitoba.
