DULUTH NATIVE INTERNS AS WEATHER TEAM MEMBER FOR AWARD-WINNING TELEVISION SHOW

Melin interns with Studio One

GRAND FORKS, N.D. — Duluth, Minn. native, Blake Melin, is an intern at Studio One, an award-winning television show produced at the University of North Dakota. This is Melin's first semester with the program and he works on the weather team. He writes and edits weather stories as well as generates graphics for the weekly show. He says Studio One has helped make him, "the best he can be." In addition to interning with Studio One, Melin is also involved with intramural hockey, rugby, golf club, and theater.

Melin is the son of Kraig and Deanna Melin and graduated from Hermantown High School in 2007. He is currently a Communications and Theater major at UND and plans on graduating in 2012. He believes that his Studio One experience will greatly benefit him after college. "From interpersonal communication to professionalism, it is simply all covered," he explains.

Studio One is an award-winning news and information program produced at the University of North Dakota Television Center. The program airs live on UND Channel 3 on Thursdays at 5 p.m. Re-broadcasts can be seen at 7 a.m., noon, 7 p.m. and 11 p.m. daily and on Saturdays at 10 a.m. Prairie Public Television airs Studio One on Saturday at 6 a.m. The program can also be seen by viewers in Fargo, Bismarck/Mandan and Minot, N.D.; Minneapolis, Minn.; Denver, Colo.; and Winnipeg, Manitoba.
