

Psychology Student Awards Application

The following application is to be completed and submitted to Dr. Karyn Plumm (can be placed in her mailbox in the main office) by October 19th, 2009, if you wish to be eligible for any of the Annual Undergraduate Student Awards. Please clearly indicate the Award(s) for which you are applying by checking the box provided next to each. You may apply for more than one. The criteria for each award are listed below.

1. Outstanding Undergraduate Research

Eligibility: undergraduate psychology majors serving as research assistants or conducting independent research (including honors thesis) during the previous academic year

Criteria: outstanding research efforts, taking into consideration quantity, quality, and conceptual contributions

2. Outstanding Undergraduate Service

Eligibility: undergraduate psychology majors engaged in service activities during the previous academic year; service is broadly defined to include activities in which the student applies his/her abilities to activities in support of other students, the department, the university, or the community.

Criteria: outstanding service efforts, taking into consideration both the quality and quantity of contributions

3. Outstanding Psychology Student

Eligibility: undergraduate psychology majors

Criteria: outstanding overall performance as an undergraduate psychology major, taking into consideration cumulative grade point average, psychology grade point average, number of credits in psychology courses, research activities, and service to other students, the department, the university, and the community.

Complete this application on your own, without assistance from faculty members or graduate students from the Psychology Department. (You may seek assistance in obtaining specific details to complete the application.)

If you have any questions, please contact Dr. Karyn Plumm at 777-4775 or e-mail at karyn.plumm@und.edu.

Good luck!
